1. Heard.

2. This is an application for restoration of the petition which was dismissed by order dated 31st August, 2006. Perused the order dated 31st August, 2006. However, that order has been passed on merit after going through the record and it is not dismissed for default. The learned Counsel states that the order was passed when no one was present for the petitioner. However, that does not preclude the Court from passing the order. Restoration application is not tenable. It is hereby rejected.
